The children love the structure of the phonics lesson. 'Say it fast' and 'Break it down' have been a big hit in my classroom.

Welcome to Success for All Phonics

Aligned to Letters and Sounds

FFT's new Success for All Phonics is a proven systematic synthetic phonics teaching programme for Reception to Year 1. It meets all the requirements of the National Curriculum and the EYFS framework and has been validated by the DfE.

Why does my child's school need to use a programme for phonics and early reading?

For many years there has been a lot of research conducted into the best ways to help children to read well as soon as possible. Schools have been using a range of programmes that teach phonics for several years. In winter 2020, the Department for Education decided it was important to have a new list of programmes they had checked that met a list of stringent criteria to be 'validated' systematic, synthetic phonics programmes, or SSP for short. Like other programmes, FFT Success for All Phonics was validated by the DfE and, after looking at all programmes available, our school have selected this as our chosen programme as we feel it's best for your child/ren.

What is included with Success for All Phonics?

How can I help my child?

FFT Success for All Phonics have written lots of advice on how to support your child which you can read on our Parents Portal:

<https://parents.fft.org.uk/tips-for-home-reading/>

A complete set of Readers which can be found here is also available along with recordings of the Readers being read out loud.

Helping your child is, in fact, straightforward. Research shows that it is really important to introduce children to several new words each day, just by talking and using them together. Children also have a better chance of being a successful reader if they practice reading their decodable books and also share other exciting books for pleasure, hearing others read.

“Our children enjoy the pace of these lessons and the high levels of engagement. In addition, SFA provide ongoing CPD for staff, meaning that we are constantly improving the quality of teaching and the outcomes of our children.”

What will my child do in their daily lessons?

Each day your child will spend time revisiting phonemes and graphemes to ensure they consolidate their learning before new content is introduced through teacher led activities designed to help them oral blend, segment and read words and then sentences.

They will also learn the alphabet and how to write letters in upper and lower case before beginning to write simple words and then sentences. Additionally, they will have daily opportunities to apply their learning into reading beautifully written books in a Shared Reader lesson whilst also discussing the text to develop their comprehension skills.
