We acknowledge the new guidance regarding 'Temporary arrangements applying to suspensions and permanent exclusions occurring between 25 September 2021 and 24 March 2022' which refers to:

- Conducting remote meetings
- Arranging a remote access meeting
- Fairness and transparency
- Running the meeting
- Applications for an independent review

(See 'Changes to the school suspension and permanent exclusion process during the coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak (DfE))

We strongly believe in good discipline as we feel it is essential to ensure that all pupils can benefit from the educational and social opportunities that the school offers. The exclusion of a pupil will only be 'used as a last resort in response to a serious breach or persistent breaches of the school's behaviour policy'.

We work hard not to exclude pupils but to help to support them by constantly reviewing our behaviour management and working with them to help their behaviours. We have in place a behaviour management system that everybody is familiar with and know what they are doing

We are aware that by keeping disruptive pupils in school and providing support for them, our performance will fall. However, we believe we cannot give up on them.

We treat all pupils fairly with all decisions to exclude will be lawful, reasonable and fair. We will not discriminate against pupils on the basis of protected characteristics. All pupils who are vulnerable to exclusion will be treated fairly.

We believe pupil exclusion is best defined as when a pupil is not allowed to attend school for either a fixed term or permanently. Pupil exclusion is a sanction that will be used only as a last resort, except when an immediate exclusion is the only appropriate action to take.

We acknowledge that a pupil will only be excluded following serious breaches of discipline or if the safety of pupils and school personnel would be harmed if the pupil remained in the school. Parents will be informed immediately in writing about a fixed period exclusion.

Before a pupil is excluded a whole range of strategies such as early intervention and pupil support plans will be implemented in order to improve the behaviour of the pupil.

We believe that 'disruptive behaviour can be an indication of unmet needs' and we will do all that we can to identify the causes and if need be to 'give consideration to a multi-agency assessment that goes beyond the pupil's educational needs.'

All exclusions will follow the correct procedures as outlined in 'The Department for Education guidance Exclusion from Maintained Schools, Academies and pupil Referral Units in England (2012)'. We are aware that is illegal to unofficially or informally exclude by just sending a pupil home for disciplinary reasons. At all times the correct procedures will be followed.

We will try to ensure that other than in the most exceptional circumstances we will not exclude any pupil who has a statement for SEN, or an education, health and care plan (EHC) or is receiving SEND support.

We are aware that children with special needs are seven times more likely to be excluded than those without. It appears that many schools are failing to spot ADHD and autism which can be contributing factor to a rise in exclusions.

We acknowledge that too few resources are being used to understand why a child might be behaving badly before the exclusion cycle begins and that schools are being put under much more pressure in terms of their outcomes and their achievement data. It is much easier to remove a disruptive pupil from a classroom and to deal with the masses than it is to focus the time on that one disruptive pupil.

We believe that permanent exclusion should be a last resort and will only be used where all other strategies for supporting the pupil have been exhausted. We work hard to ensure behavioural issues are dealt with earlier and more effectively.

However, despite our best efforts it may be necessary to exclude a pupil to ensure the other pupils are able to learn in a safe and orderly environment and that the pupil in question needs more support than we can provide.

Parents will be made aware of their rights that they can appeal against an exclusion to the Governing Body. An independent review panel will deal with all appeals.

We will ensure that all excluded pupils will be 'enabled and encouraged to participate at all stages of the exclusion process, taking into account their age and understanding.'

We have a duty to have in place a strategy for reintegrating pupils that return to school following a fixed period of exclusion, and a strategy for managing their future behaviour.

We wish to work closely with the School Council and to hear their views and opinions as we acknowledge and support Article 12 of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child that children should be encouraged to form and to express their views.

We as a school community have a commitment to promote equality. We believe this policy is in line with the Equality Act 2010.

We all have a responsibility to ensure equality permeates in to all aspects of school life and that everyone is treated equally irrespective of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation. We want everyone connected with this school to feel safe, secure, valued and of equal worth.

We believe it is essential that this policy clearly identifies and outlines the roles and responsibilities of all those involved in the procedures and arrangements that is connected with this policy.
